

Construction Quality Management (CQM) for Contractors Certification Training

Required by USACE and NAVFAC

Construction Quality Management (CQM) for Contractors: CQM is the performance of tasks, which ensure that construction is performed according to plans and specifications, on time, within a defined budget, and a safe work environment.

WHY ATTEND:

The CQM certification is required for Army Corps of Engineers and Navy construction contracts. This course provides training on the CQM concepts and procedures used in Naval Facilities Engineering Command and Army Corps of Engineers construction contracts. These concepts fit perfectly with commercial construction work, taking CQM down to the working level and familiarizing participants with the importance of the all parts of the contract—safety, quality, environmental, etc.

Instructor:

KENNETH A. NEWTON, P.E. (Kenny) or JAMES BALDWIN, P.E. (Jim)
James Baldwin Consulting, Inc

CQM Program Facilitator; re-appointed March 2011 by USACE Norfolk District and NAVFAC Mid-Lant in Norfolk
